Liturgia - Liturgy

The liturgy is the public prayer of the Church: according to the words of the Second Vatican Council, is the "culmination towards which the activity of the of the Church; at the same time, it is the source from which flows all its strength" (Sacrosanctum Concilium, 10). At the centre of the Christian liturgy is the Mass – the Eucharistic celebration, where they are truly received the Body and Blood of Christ. Like a pilgrim, Christ He himself walks beside the disciples and reveals to them the mysteries of the Father, that they too may say, as the disciples said about the Emmaus Road: "Stay with us, for it is evening and day is almost finished" (Luke 24:29).

"God did not have this gift of the Holy Eucharist reserved for virgin souls or privileged gods, but he gave it for everyone and, I would almost say, preferentially to the weakest in virtue and to the most painful; to the sick of every languor, to the poor, to the blind through ignorance, to the crippled, so imperfect to us. Yes, to us afflicted by so many spiritual evils, to us so many sinners, to us comes and has given himself the God of all holiness! Our place is therefore there, at the table of the Lord! There to be healed, there to be enlightened, to be comforted, nourished and enlivened by his own divine life. It is something sublime, intoxicating: it's Paradise!" (Don Orione).

The liturgy is the set of prayers and community rites that unite us in the public manifestation of our faith. Lord, we praise you and thank you for these privileged moments of encounter with each other and with you.

We ask you to learn how to value and treasure the richness that the Church offers us through the liturgy, and that these words and gestures help us to unite and be a sure guide to walk as the People of God and as a charismatic family. We want to celebrate together your merciful and provident, tender and strong love. We want to ask you to accompany us on the pilgrimage of our lives, increasing in us the faith, hope and charity that come from you and find its fullness in you. Through your Son, Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit. Amen.
